

THE 1952 BEARCAT

Douglas William Joseph Solbert

Hi "Blug"
Lane I sure
being in school with you, especially this year in Sociology.

went to Remember the night we stole water melons. How could you forget ???

things we've done - but maybe it is best to forget.

for me - Thanks for making my picture
Anyway I missed a hanging afternoon at school. Although I never did get it.

year but I sure will miss you next Best of luck to you in the future.

THE BEARCAT STAFF

LENOIR HIGH SCHOOL .....LENOIR, NORTH CAROLINA

Foreword

In this 1952 Bearcat we have tried with pictures and verse to catch and preserve scenes typical of our life at L. N. S. To include everything of interest and importance to each individual is, obviously, impossible. We have tried to show to those who have imagination an escape from today's horrors into yesterday's happiness.

When in later years you relive your high school days with this Bearcat, the staff will be amply rewarded for the hours spent on editing this material.

To You,
MR. GEORGE W. KIRSTEN, JR.
We Dedicate This
1952 BEARCAT

Your way of life has been injected into all of our lives. Your friendly smile and good disposition makes our work seem like play and you bring out the magic of music in us. You have won the love and respect of the entire student body.

So, with this tribute, we dedicate this annual and wish for you the best of everything.

George A. Kivster Jr.

OUR FACULTY

Mrs. C. M. Abernethy

Patience is merely loving what you do,
Forgetting what a job it is to teach English Two.

Miss Mary Angley

A person capable of imagining and doing all,
Overlooking no detail no matter how small.

Mrs. J. B. Bernard

Senors and senioritas, if you wish a friend,
Our efficient Spanish teacher, we recommend.

Mr. L. F. Briggs

He finds joy in nature, sea and sky;
In small things, like a butterfly.

Mrs. Virginia Cobb

She has injected her jovial self into our hearts
And revealed dramatics as the greatest of arts.

Mr. Bill Cross

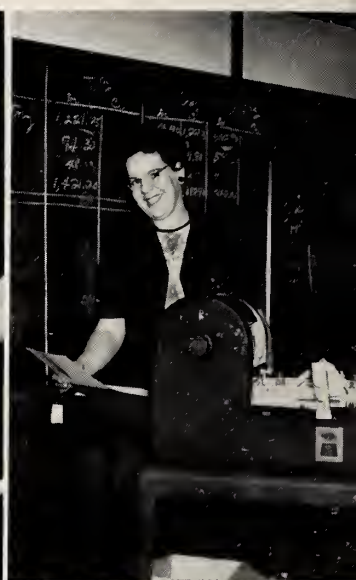

He has displayed to us the spirit of the game
And added to the books another year of fame.

Miss Georgia Haley

The teacher who has kindness but discipline in her eye
Is usually the one we profit by.

Mr. James C. Harper

He has given his all for Lenoir High Band,
And has succeeded in making it the best in the land.

OUR FACULTY

Mrs. A. H. Jarratt

Our problems become hers as she guides us on our way
To help us adjust ourselves to life each day.

Mr. John Kaufman

To expect people to work for you,
You must do your share of working, too.

Mr. George Kirsten

He has the power to bewitch a throng
With a word of kindness, or the magic of song.

Mrs. C. E. Lipe

Bookkeeping, shorthand, typing, too,
Any of these subjects she'll gladly teach you.

Mrs. J. G. Lipe

Some important things in life are not taught from books,
Like being housewives and excellent cooks.

Mr. J. V. Mills

Chemistry would surely die if not mixed with a spark of wit
By this man who has been gifted with plenty of it.

Mrs. Magdalene Ransdell

What would happen if we had something to discuss
And couldn't find her, to select a subject for us?

Mrs. Roy Robinson

The seniors' friend, the journalist's guide,
The students find her one in whom to confide.

OUR FACULTY

Mrs. H. C. Sisk

If understanding be the quality you seek in a friend
Gaze on this picture; your search shall end.

Mrs. Ophelia J. Stallings

Originality and friendliness pay,
As her bulletin boards display.

Mr. A. C. Trivette

Cool, calm, and collected always;
Although teaching geometry brings trying days.

Mrs. A. C. Trivette

Her mind, her kingdom, her will, her way
For the power of intelligence commands us to obey.

Miss Cecelia Warlick

Brains and brawn, topped with a smile
A teacher that makes living worth while.

Mrs. Gertrude Whitehead

It takes a great personality combined with concern
To make a student realize how much he has to learn.

EXPERIENCING DEMOCRACY

But I can't be on the Student Council . . . I don't have a "B" average . . . I'm suspended!
. . . But what will Mrs. Trivette say? . . . And what do you think, Jack? . . . We must be Democratic . . . Did I see you cheating? I'll report you . . . Ours is but to do or die.

VOL. XXX

LENOIR HIGH SCHOOL

NO. 2

Kent is the efficient editor and Hedrick is the capable business manager. They are assisted by Patricia Broyhill and Carolyn Dudley, respectively.

The journalism class, whose names appear below, assisted the staff under the direction of their advisor, Mrs. Robinson.

They have produced for the student body eight issues of the school paper. Through the printed columns these students kept the school informed and helped maintain school standards with their editorial policy.

"Hand in all copy by Monday . . . Doug, get your pictures ready . . . Bob, get the subscription list ready . . . Mrs. Robinson, please let us have gossip this time"—It's all routine stuff to those pictured on this page.

"LEADERSHIP, SERVICE, CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP"

I tap you as a member of the National Honor Society . . . Is the meeting being held at your house? . . . Oh mercy, I made a "B" on English.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hurrying home one afternoon from my job as fashion magazine editor in New York City I was startled by this sign: "James Haymaker's famous symphony orchestra now appearing." There were pictures of "Dick" and several other old school-mates of mine—Reba Winkler, Joanna Klutz, Billie Sue Prestwood and Norma Bean. The guest stars were Mary Lib Scott and Judy Arrington. Seeing them made me realize what a difference 10 years could make. I'd flown up to Canada to see Jo Ann Crisp who was married and now living there but it had been a long time since I'd seen any of the class of '52: Of course I'd seen Jimmy Dingler, Barbara Hunt and Gary Everhardt on T.V. and had heard Vivian Jenkins at the Met. and I'd read Pinky Hanks best seller, "To The Woods." Now I decided to visit Dick after the concert and catch up on the news.

Sitting in the dark concert hall I thought of the letters from home. Carolyn Leftwich, new principal, had written me all about L.H.S. Mr. Lentz had become superintendent with Gwen Huntley and Gwen Thompson as his secretaries, Alta Robinson was teaching French; Marilyn Hedrick was the personnel advisor, Diane Huntley had succeeded Mrs. Trivette; Jan Melton was the girls' phys. ed. teacher, and Hillard Underdown and Joe Cook were coaching the football team while Paul Beck had the baseball team.

Jackie Biggerstaff had written that Caroline Wilson, Mae Ann Blalock and Margie Johnson were with her on the nursing staff at the Memorial Hospital run by Drs. Charles (Chuck) Lore and Henry Gaither and that Joe Smith was living on Miller Hill.

After the stirring performance I rushed back stage to talk to "Dick." He was overjoyed to see me, and we began discussing our old classmates. We discovered that many of them were right here in the city. Eddie Bynum was now editor of the New York Times with Doug Tolbert as photographer, Bobby Clark as sports' editor, Jim Childers as movie editor, and Dorothy and Carrie Wall, Dick Robbins and Mavis Smith as reporters. Jim Sherrill was drawing a comic strip, and there were several of the girls working as office secretaries; Genoise Tuttle, Jeanette McDade, Gayle Melton, Betty Jo Stout, and Mary Sumpter.

I told "Dick" that I had hired Phylliss Sherrill as model and Eugene Moore as artist for my magazine. Lora Ann Carver, now famous interior decorator, was doing a series of living room arrangements. Nancy Hood and Frances Clifton were working in the office, Lois Lawing was writing the features and Jean P. Clippard, the home-life department.

"Dick" had been in Lenoir recently and reported that Sarah Greer's husband John Noll now had a chain of Thrift grocery stores. Ralph Walsh, Thomas Warren and Sidney Barlow were managing his stores, and John Cloutz had Charles Harless and Bobby Hardin helping him in the meat department. Joan Nelson Triplett, Frances Warren, Barbara Lovins and Peggy Carswell, all married, bought their groceries there. "Hack" Carpenter's wife sent him there for groceries since she couldn't get away from their eight children.

After we had talked for awhile we decided to go around the corner to Lee Una Wright's cafe for a cup of coffee. We noticed that Reita Efird was appearing there with her chorus girls including Mary Hawkins, and Joanne Crotts, so we stayed for the show. On the table was a milk carton from Earl Austin's dairy.

While we were sitting there a red-haired gentleman strode up to our table. We immediately recognized him. It was Joe Alexander, the new head of the F.B.I. He told us he had as his helpers Peggy Ann Sherrill, Celia Rash, Juanita Price and Eddie Poteat. He also said that the F.B.I. was having some trouble with the famous pool-room operators Robert Smith, Donald Kirby, and Joseph Wilson for tax evasion. He said the F.B.I. had asked two state patrolmen, David Haigler, now married to Gena Faires, and Neal Withers, and two famous chemists, Ann Timanus and Jack

Foster, to help. We asked the news from home, and he told us that James Wilson, Jerry Crump, and Tom Suddreth now had their own filling stations; that Nancy Moore and Betty Crotts were running a beauty parlor; Gordon Carpenter was a Veterinarian. Maxine Coffey was running the bookstore; Carolyn Barlow, the North Pole; Benson Melton was managing Belk's; Bobby Suddreth, a furniture store, and Bob Laws, an upholstering shop. He also said that Bob Holsclaw and "Ern" now had their own little home.

As we left each other, our thoughts turned back to those good old days of '51 and '52 in L.H.S. and all our friends.

CLASS HISTORY

As we, the graduating class of 1952, spend our last hours in L. H. S., our thoughts drift back twelve years ago when we were entering the first grade in 1939.

Few of us realized that we were beginning the most important phases and the best years of our lives.

We began our school careers by learning the A, B, C's, reading, writing, and arithmetic. It was new and hard for us but we loved going to school and meeting so many other boys and girls.

But the years passed swiftly and we were in the sixth grade. Excited about our sixth grade graduation, we dreamed of the day Lenoir High School doors would open to us for the first time.

The thought of going to the High School building as Junior High Students thrilled many of us. We met new people and made new friends. Dividing into small, intimate groups, we shared our secrets and experiences with these friends.

But another thrill was yet to come. We were going to be pioneers in our eighth year, we were going to be eighth graders at the new Junior High School. And pioneers we were! For many days we trudged up the muddy, sometimes icy, hill to the old, brick building once again alive with the activity of young people.

We felt superior because we were seniors, the first graduating class of the new Junior High School. All of us remember marching down the aisle, dressed in white, going onto the stage, receiving our diplomas; knowing we were actually growing up. We were on our way to the glamorous world of Senior High School.

When (for the second time in our school careers) we entered the High School, we realized it was different. We began our Freshman year feeling lost as we hurried about the halls trying to find our classes. It didn't take long, though, for us to get used to the routine which combined work and fun. We admired the upper classmen because they looked so cool and sure of themselves while we were striving to be somebody.

In our sophomore year changes took place in our lives as High School students. Many of us became members of school clubs and organizations; others found themselves interested, and prospective stars, in the field of sports. We can never forget our football team's winning the conference championship that year as well as the next two years. We had done our share, too, because our sophomore voices helped create those cheers coming from the sidelines that led them to that victory.

As juniors we began thinking of the future, not only in terms of schools and colleges, but in terms of our life-long careers. We planned the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet with much enthusiasm. This was our first big social and we would remember it for years to come. When our junior year ended, we began to feel a deeper sense of loyalty and spirit for our school.

Then the day arrived, the day we had looked forward to and dreamed of. We were seniors—the Class of '52. Yet we weren't so happy, certainly not as happy as we had pictured ourselves. It was as if we were trying to grasp each day and hold to it. Before we knew it, we were excited over another, and our last, Junior-Senior. We were planning a very important Class Day.

How could it pass so quickly? It seems like only yesterday that we entered the first grade, and now here we sit at our graduation, waiting patiently to receive our diplomas.

After this night we will never again feel the same excitement and pride as we sing our school Alma Mater. Never again will we take those dreaded trips to the office, never again share our secrets and experiments in school. The tears well in our eyes as we think over past years. Are they tears of happiness or tears of sadness? Are we happy because the long road has come to an end? Are we sad because our friends will go one way—we another, to face the world? Some will be in the Armed Forces fighting to keep this country free so our children will have the privileges we had. Others will have the privileges we had. Others will remain at home to make their places in the social and business world.

Wherever we go, whatever we do we will try our best, using the tools given us in our student days of childhood and youth—leadership, character, ability, and knowledge.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1952 do leave our sincerest thanks to L. H. S. for making these past four years happy ones.

To our teachers we leave our apologies for the troubles we have caused and our gratitude for the joys they have given us.

To Mr. Lentz and Mr. Hagaman we regretfully leave the job of keeping next year's seniors in good working order.

We leave the following to the seniors of the future:

Joe Alexander leaves his seat in English to Leslie Walker with a reminder that said seat is accustomed to being slept in.

Judy Arrington leaves her friendly ways to Jack Carlton.

Earl Austin leaves his quietness to Jeanette Hall.

Carolyn Barlow leaves her soft voice to Patricia Broyhill.

Sidney Barlow leaves his sincerest sympathy to the faculty.

Norma Bean leaves her seat in 12A to her sister, Joyce, and the wad of chewing gum that's underneath it.

Paul Beck leaves his many honors in football to anyone who feels up to it.

Jacqueline Biggerstaff leaves her pleasing personality to Shirley Davis.

Mae Ann Blalock leaves her position of errand girl to Helen Marley.

Joyce Bollinger leaves her freckles to Janice Sigmon.

Eddie Bynum leaves half of his ability to thrill the girls to Bowman Lackey—only half because he's not through with the other half.

Gordon Carpenter leaves his managership of the football team to Harold Bernhardt.

Haskel Carpenter leaves for greener pastures.

Peggy Carswell leaves her small size to Jennie Austin.

Frances Clifton leaves her love for dancing to Bradley Pennell.

Lora Ann Carver leaves her neat appearance to Eloise Jones.

Jim Childers leaves his special "loving glances" to William Smithey.

Bobby Clarke leaves his love for Bobby Clarke to Barbaree Prestwood.

John Clontz leaves his naturally blond hair to Vernon McGimsey.

Maxine Coffey leaves her tiny hands to Patty Moser.

Joe Cook leaves his easy-going ways to Nolan Lovins.

Jo Ann Crisp leaves her cute clothes to Mary Jennings Spainhour.

Betty Crotts leaves for Kings Creek.

Jerry Crump leaves his trips to Charlotte to anyone with a girl there.

Jim Dingle leaves Jerry Alred one roll of bailing wire and a pack of chewing gum to be used in holding his jalopy together.

Reita Efrd leaves her cheerleading outfit to Shirley Gregg.

Joanne Crotts leaves her big brown eyes to Patricia McGhee.

Gary Everhardt leaves his Latin II book to Phyllis Hedrick with the wish that she finish it in less time than the four years it took him.

Jack Foster leaves his brains to Janet McNeil.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

Gena Faires leaves Margie.

Henry Gaither leaves his good looking clothes to Ralph Haigler.

Sarah Greer leaves her cold hands and warm heart to Willodean Land not that she needs a warmer heart.

John Noll leaves his ability to keep cold hands warm to Little Howard.

Pinky Hanks leaves her sense of humor to Tommy Eller.

Bob Hardin leaves his originality to Harold Kirby.

Charles Harless leaves his cuteness to Sybil Shuford.

Mary Hawkins leaves with Barbara Hunt.

Jim Haymaker leaves his love for a good time to Shirley Mikeal.

Marilyn Hedrick leaves her business-like manner and fun-loving ways to Marlene Rhodes.

Bob Holsclaw leaves on a slow boat for Korea.

Nancy Hood leaves her profile to Delphine Cochran.

Barbara Hunt leaves her shorthand book to Mrs. Lipe as she is the only one who would want it.

Diane Huntley leaves the title of "typical Senior" to anyone who is extraordinary enough to win it.

Gwen Huntley leaves her good nature to Diana Goble.

AUTOGRAPHS

Hello Paug

Well-well-well - that water-melon was sure good. Too bad the pictures didn't turn out. Better luck next time. Hope we can have as much fun in the future as we have had in the past. We need the old station wagon back. Best of luck and the very best wishes to a good old pal.

Dear Doug,

It has been fun being in school with you these past four years. I hope the Best of Luck in what ever you undertake.

Bobby Clark

P.S. Never forget the Boxing matches in Journalism.

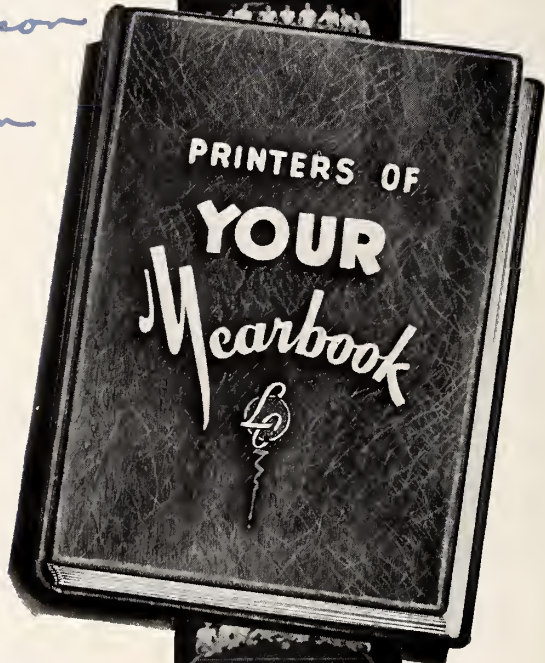

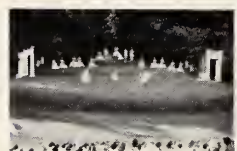

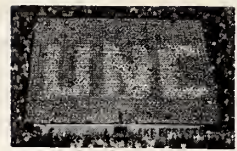

This, no doubt, has been a pretty tugged year for you. I do hope there are some pleasant memories. You've been a wonderful help to the Mountaineers. Thanks, Nina Robinson
